Beaver Scavenger Hunt

2005

- Something you can see light through.
- Something with which to make music.
- A soft rock.
- Something gooey.
- Three things that have changed: since this morning...since last winter...since you were born...
- Bring back the sound of the rain, even if it isn't raining.
- Something natural with which to mark.
- Find three signs that animals are living here.
- Describe something that changes so slowly you don't notice.
- Draw the wind.
- Bring back a piece of litter.
- Measure and record the length of the shadow of the tallest person in your group, using a finger, toe, hand, foot, arm or leg as a ruler.
- Find something you would like to make better.
- Using everyone in your group, make a human sculpture to show the other groups something that you saw.
- Something you don't understand.
- A sign of the season.
- Something hard.
- Something soft.
- A plant in the ground.
- A twig from aloft.
- Something hairy.
- Something dead.
- Food for a bird.
- Food for a rabbit.
- A twig from a tree.
- An insect's home.
- A plant that climbs.
- A plant that creeps.
- Something from a tree.
- Something that is square.
- Something that is round.
- Something that is red.
- A feather.
- A piece of string.
- An acorn.
