Around the Station - Activities

Station 1

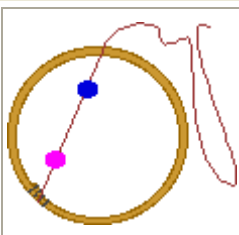

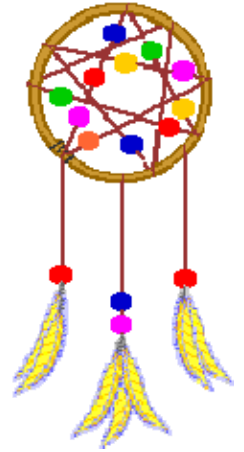

Dream Catchers

Dream Catcher

Dream Catchers are from Native American lore; they trap bad dreams and let the good dreams filter down to the sleeper.

For each dream catcher you will need:

- a cardboard roll
- some twine / wool
- beads with large holes
- a few feathers

Cut a few lengths of twine. Tie one end of the twine to the hoop. String a few beads onto the twine and push the beads toward the tied end. Wrap the twine around the other side of the hoop.

String a few more beads on the twine and then wrap the twine around the far side of the hoop. Repeat until you have an interesting webbing design.

Tie a short length of twine on the hoop. String a bead or two on it and then tie a feather onto the end. Repeat this a few times (2 or 3 hanging feather strings look nice). Hang the dream catcher near your bed!

Station 2 Shooting Gallery

Get some rubber bands, set it up and start shooting.
As always observe all safety precautions and don't shoot at anything but the targets. Supervision is always recommended.

Tee Pees

Tepee

Many Native American tribes made tepees (tepee is sometimes spelled tipi or teepee) from long tree limbs and animal hides. You can make a wonderful model tepee using a Material and Dowel.

Supplies needed:

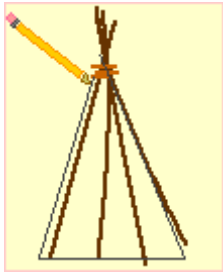

- 4 lengths of dowel (about a foot long each)
- Yarn, twine, or a rubber band
- A sheet of material
- Scissors
- A pencil
- Crayons, tempera paint, or markers

Bind the dowell together toward the top using yarn, string, or a rubber band. Leave about 3 cm's of dowell at one side of the string. Do not bind the twigs too tightly.

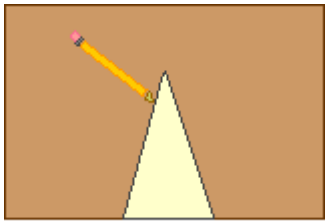

Gently adjust the twigs so that they form a tepee shape.

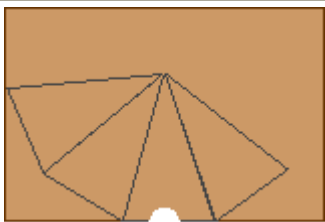

Holding the tepee above a piece of scrap paper, trace the outline of one side of the tepee. This will be your template for making the tepee.

Cut out your triangular template.

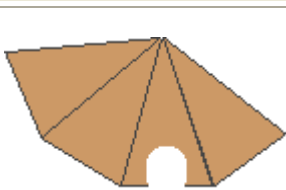

Spread out the material.

Lay your triangle template on the material and trace its outline.

Trace the triangle 3 more times with the long edges touching.

Cut out this large polygon along the outside edge. Cut a door on one edge.

Decorate the tepee using markers.

Fold the material along each of the pencil lines. Then form the material into a tepee shape .

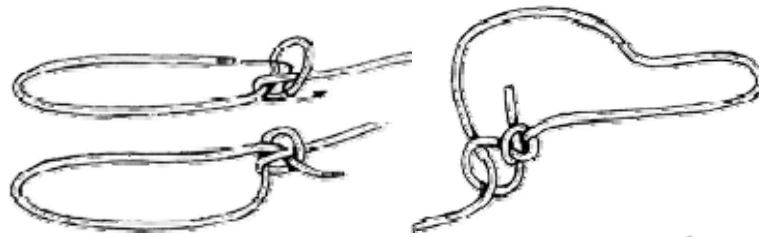

Snip off the top of the tepee (the twigs will go through this hole).

Put the twigs into the tepee. Stitch the twigs into place - each twig is stitched along a fold line.

You now have a wonderful tepee!
