

What is frost bite?

Freezing of the skin

What is the primary parts of the body that is more susceptible to frost bite?

Cheeks, fingers, nose, ears

Why are these more susceptible?

They are more exposed and less blood circulations (further from the heart)

What would you put on your face to prevent chances of frost bite?

Vaseline

What is better for your hands Mitts or Gloves and why?

Mitts, because you have all your fingers together to help warm.

How can you tell you have frost bite?

If your skin gets white and starts to harden it is the sign of the beginning of frost bite.

What could Kehl have done to get his tongue off the pole?

Use a hot liquid such as hot chocolate or even try to warm the pole with your hands.

What is Snow Blindness?

When the sun reflects on the snow

What is Hypothermia?

The chill that kills

Who would get chills faster leader or one of the cubs? Why?

One of the cubs. Size and thickness

What is the worst kind of pants you could wear? Why?

Jeans because they retain the water

What is the best type of material?

Fleece because the material can breathe and will dry faster

What type of rope floats and also is used to make underwear?

Polypropylene